The Grand Trunk railroad of Canada offers to carry passengers through from Portland to Chicago and return for $30, at the time of the National Republican Convention. Passengers will go out by a special train leaving Portland on the 10th and 14th of May, but they may return on regular trains any time within thirty days.

What an undertaking is the California pony express. Only think of it-1800 miles across an unbroken country, surrounded by every danger, in ten days. There are nearly one hundred horses employed, and only thirty-six couriers, each riding about 50
